After being left pregnant and alone by her True Mate, she's finally standing on her own two feet and built a life for herself and her son. But more than that, she must also protect her own heart, which yearns for him despite his betrayal. The moment he saw her, Lone Wolf Ransom knew he had to have Isabelle. The vapid and selfish princess was hiding a heart of gold, and one smile from her melted his resistance. But, circumstances forced him to push her away, for her own good. There was a plan that was set in motion long ago, and she was a complication he couldn't afford, not when he was so close to what he wanted: revenge on those who wronged him in the past. He managed to stay away from her, but when her life is threatened, it was seemingly impossible for him to ignore it and he seeks her out to protect her. When they cross paths, that old attraction sparks again-but was it really ever extinguished? Will Isabelle be able to keep the existence of their son from him? Can Ransom put revenge aside for good in order to win her back and prove to her they were meant to be together? But their enemies have ramped up in full force and their threat is much bigger than both of them. As the fight heats up, can they focus on defeating the mages, while ignoring the call of True Mates? Or will the mages finally get what they want-the destruction of the Lycans and rule over of the entire world and humankind?

And for once in his life, he feels he has a bright future ahead. Even though she's human, Blackstone has become a sanctuary for Penny Bennet. It's the place where she could start over and escape the scorn of the people from her past. When Ben suddenly declares she's the one his bear chose, she's not sure if she believes him. But, can he also convince Penny she's his forever mate, before it's too late?

When a mysterious organization tries to sabotage the Blackstone Mines and Christina is put in harm's way, Jason must put aside his personal feelings about mates to protect her. But, Christina is hiding a secret of her own and she may be more involved than she's led on.

Sybil Lennox longed for a mate of her own, but she wasn't expecting the dragon Prince Aleksei to swoop into town and proclaim her as his. Even though her own dragon wants him, he's too arrogant, brash, and dominant for her tastes and she fights her attraction to him. Why couldn't fate have given her a normal guy? His Royal Highness, Prince Aleksei of the Northern Isles came to Blackstone to forge an alliance with Henry Lennox to fight a common enemy. But, he never imagined that he would meet his one fated mate. Sybil Lennox was exquisite and one of the few eligible female dragons in the world.
