Wild Ride: Inside Uber's Quest for World Domination ...

Uber's toxic culture is referenced, but not given the attention it deserves. Overarching Ambition. We should give editor and author credit for capturing Uber's overarching ambition in the title: Wild Ride: Uber's Quest for World Domination, but the book leaves it at that. There is little discussion of how a company that's attempting to introduce flying cars, food delivery, motorcycles, water transit, etc. is ever going to make money on any of these wild ideas.

Wild Ride: Inside Uber's Quest for World Domination by Adam Lashinsky, Portfolio, 240 pages, Hardcover, May 2017, ISBN 9780735211391 I'm pretty thoroughly uninterested in Uber. As a father of two young children who still need to ride in car seats, I need my own vehicle to get us around\u2014and I am fortunate enough that I don't need to use that vehicle in the side hustle Uber provides.
